RED RIBBON WEEK: Tuesday – Give Drugs the Boot, wear boots, Wednesday – Drugs Give U the Blues, wear blue, Thursday – Team Up Against Drugs, wear favorite team jersey, Friday – RCB Day, wear blue, green, and white

More than 434,000 Americans die each year from diseases caused by tobacco use. Eighty percent of smokers start before the age of 18.

The Red Ribbon Week S.A.D.D. winner for today is Kelly McHenry. Please see Mrs. Eagle in room 217 to collect your prize.

GRIM REAPER – On Friday, October 30, the Students Against Destructive Decisions (S.A.D.D.) will be sponsoring a school wide event to make students aware of the consequences of driving under the influence of a substance. One member of S.A.D.D. will be dressed as the Grim Reaper and will visit various classrooms throughout the school day. Every 20 minutes the Grim Reaper will select a member of S.A.D.D. as a victim; this victim will represent someone who has been killed in a DUI related accident. No students are to speak to the victims, who will wear an emblem during the school day. Please keep in mind that since this is a somber activity, it is not to be viewed lightly by the students or the victims. The cooperation of the students and staff will be greatly appreciated as S.A.D.D. conducts this awareness campaign.

INVISIBLE CHILDREN ASSEMBLY – FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 3RD PERIOD, IN THE THEATRE. Teachers are given the option of taking their students to this assembly. Invisible Children is an organization that raises money to end the war and rebuild Uganda. Invisible Children are children in Uganda who are abducted by the rebel army to fight. 30,000 children have been abducted and forced to kill people including their own families. Girls are exploited and boys are made to be soldiers. Children run away from the rebels and hide in fear of their lives. The government keeps no record of their whereabouts. There is no record of their deaths, therefore, causing them to be invisible.
